

2024 ANTOINETTE BROWN BLACKWELL SOCIETY'S
HENRIETTA WOMAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

This award is given in memory of the first ordained woman minister in the United States, Antoinette Brown Blackwell, who was born and raised in Henrietta, New York.

Any woman who is presently a resident of Henrietta, and has demonstrated leadership qualities and community service is eligible for this award. The award recognizes a woman who has, through her volunteer contributions that are not work related, acted as a role model for the community.

The ABB Woman of the Year Award will be presented on May 8, 2024. Please submit your nominee information on the enclosed form, or the form found on the town website at www.henrietta.org. Must be received by March 11, 2024. Mail to:

ABB Nominating Committee
PO Box 133
Henrietta, NY 14467

Up to three letters of recommendation may be submitted with a limit of 250 words each. Members of the award committee, the ABB Society Board of Directors, and past recipients are not eligible.

Nominations must be received by March 11, 2024. Confidentiality will be respected.

Thank you for helping us in our search for this year's recipient by submitting your nominee's information for consideration to receive this award.
